LOOKING BACK...

Looking back to September we thought the year would never end, so we passed the time away with our teachers and our friends. Homecoming and Sectionals, our two biggest dances led to lots of good times and plenty of romances. The Oilers held their heads high on the field and on the courts. They showed they had integrity in all of the sports. The Honor Roll students, Academic Team and the Jets, showed they were more than just Teacher's Pets. Before we realized how the days were moving so fast, the memories of '87 were all in the past. The Seniors began to count-down the days till they'd graduate aiming towards their goal, June 2, 1988.

FIVE DAYS TO A VICTORY

GETTING TOGETHER

The seniors said they always had it in the can.

The sophomores are baiting their hooks for a victory.

The junior class poses for a picture before their long awaited victory.

The annual spirit week brought people together and many smiles to the new year. Homecoming week 1987 began on Monday, Sept. 21. Hat and Tie Day followed by Tuesday, Sports Day; Wednesday, Western Day and Thursday, Hawaiian Day. Thursday night townspeople gathered on 119th Street to admire the awesome display of school spirit in the Homecoming parade. Finally, it was Friday the day we were all waiting for, Green and White Day, the night of the big game against the West Central Trojans. Having such overwhelming spirit, the Oilers brought home their first victory of the season 7-6.

During half time of that eventful game, Deana Gajdos was crowned 1987 Homecoming Queen and Rick Rodriguez handed down the honor of Mr. Football to James Flores. Instead of a spirit stick, the Student Council started a new tradition with an Oil Can which would be given to the class that had the most participation throughout the week. This was received by the hardworking Seniors. The great Juniors with the theme, "Don't Say the 'T' Word" won the award for the best float followed by the Sophomores having the most original idea for their spirit car, "Fishing For a Victory". Although just starting high school, the Freshmen took care of decorating the bulletin board with the theme "Trash the Trojans".

Following the game, a Homecoming Dance was held on Saturday, Sept. 26 for the first time in the small gym. The theme for the dance was "I Can't Help Falling In Love".

Overall, after all the changes were made and the victory was savored, Homecoming 1987 will always remain a special and memorable time which brought the Oilers together.

Senior attendants are (l-r) M. Chilla and K. Kender, D. Greer and D. Gajdos, L. Sotello and M. Keeler.

Homecoming Queen D. Gajdos and Mr. Football J. Flores.

Underclass attendants are (l-r) J. Peldzus and D. Coppola, Homecoming Queen D. Gajdos, S. Cabrera and W. Johnson, S. Roebuck and M. Livingston.

UNDER THE MISTLETOE

The Student Council sponsored the born again tradition of the Winter Formal dance, which took place on December 19, 1987. Tables were turned when girls went through the mental torture of asking guys to escort them. The gym was filled with 3 hours of great music provided by rock radio station Z-95. Albums were given to energetic dancers and sweatshirts were sold. Couples were exposed to elite finger foods until, unexpectedly, 23 large pizzas arrived, provided by Dominos. Lovasko Studio was invited to take the couple's pictures. Though this dance was a test of a girl's courage and the students' enthusiasm, the Student Council thinks Whiting passed. This will be one test students will want to take again.

These future models pose for their adoring fans.

B. Adams holds on "tight" to E. Miller.

"Hey, Barbie, it goes like this...!" says J. Gaal.

Dancing the nite away is D. Sandrick and K. Haviley.

It was a magical night for S. Guajardo and J. Oliver.

Taking a break, M. Renda and D. Harbin sit this one out.

I'LL SEE YOU

Sweetheart Dance

Although the actual Sectional game against Bishop Noll was not played until March 4th, the honors of Sectional Sweetheart and Mr. Basketball were announced on February 20th between the Junior Varsity and Varsity games. The deserving winners were Silvia Madrigal and Mike Keeler. Our cheerleaders showed their struts during their half-time version of "Don't You Want Me?" The girls' gym displayed a romantic contrast to the rock scene for the Sectional dance. The theme "In My Dreams" proved to be a true thought in some students' minds. During the pep assembly, students grouped into their class to cheer on the basketball team. Feelings of school spirit made everyone proud to be an Oiler.

Say cheese! Mr. Basketball M. Keeler and Sectional Sweetheart S. Madrigal.

The Senior Attendants were: J. Flores and N. Jaroszewicz; Sectional Sweetheart S. Madrigal and J. Bizik; S. Kleinedler and S. Maddox.

The underclass attendants were: K. Haviley and S. Justak; N. Briggs and D. Bonchik; G.

Milcarek and G. Renda.

IN MY DREAMS

President C. Raycroft announces the court.

The pep assembly helped to build team spirit and tension.

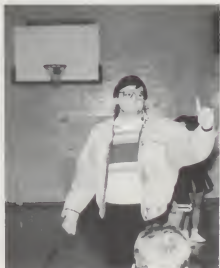

Hey everyone! Look at us!

Romance was definitely in the air for these couples.

FUN AND FRIENDS

MAKE GOOD MEMORIES

"THE KINGDOM OF MAKE BELIEVE"

The 1987-88 Junior-Senior prom took place at the Raleigh Club on May 20, 1988. There was plenty of preparation for pre-prom which took place in the small gym at 4 p.m. This year's theme was "A Night in the Kingdom of Make Believe" with the colors being pink and silver. The couples danced the night away with entertainment by Pure Elegance.

Is this really a fountain of love for A. Smith and S. Justak?

C. Hart and D. Gasco are greeted by great applause.

Parents, family, and friends gather around to watch the glamorous couples.

K. Koleszarik and R. Pietsch take a time out from dancing to enjoy each other's company.

Miss Martin is always "monkeying" around.

If the queen kisses the king, will he turn into a frog?

Whiting's answer to "Michael Jackson."

This excited couple are getting prepared for their big night.

One special couple made in heaven.

Admired and being admired is just the beginning for these couples.

TIME FOR THE MUSIC

Up, Up, up with people, you see 'em wherever you go.....That's the tune many people thought of for weeks after this energetic cast performed in front of a small, but excited audience at the Whiting High School Gymnasium. The title "Time for the Music" was appropriate for this extraordinary performance. The show consisted of many types of melodies, from the Umbrella dance of China to a gymnastics act of Scandanavia. The most intriguing and thought provoking song of the night was entitled "What Color is God's Skin?". And with the teenagers in mind, the cast rapped some songs called "Black and White" and "Junk Jam". 3 weeks before the show, promotion advisors traveled to Whiting to set up the details of the performance. The cast of Up With People, which came from all over the world, stayed with host families in Whiting, who received 2 complimentary tickets to the show. The Up With the People show was performed on October 3, 1987 at 7:30 p.m. Tickets were $4.00 for children and $6.00 for adults. The friendships that were made were everlasting, and many people hope to see them again in "Time for the Music".

By being a host, E. Jones finds a new friend.

Does Gina Milcarek think she can join the show?

The Up With the People cast helps with our school's pep rally.

M. Keeler is unwilling to see his new found friends leave.

The Up With the People shop provided souvenirs for all.

WHITING'S FINEST

In order to achieve the honor of being in the "W" Club, a coach must feel that you have proved yourself and have shown sportsmanship in a sport. The "W" Club promotes Whiting's finest.

SPRIT'S GONNA GET YA

This year's Sectional Sweetheart Dance was arranged by many different helpful Booster Club members. The 1987-88 Booster Club always tries to lift everyone's spirit by putting on a variety of activities throughout the school year. Miss Kowal, the sponsor of the club, gives her support to make the school year fun and exciting.

1987-88 SADD Members

SADD officers: Treas. C. Raycroft; Sec. D. Gajdos; Pres. J. Bzibziak; V-P B. Adams; Sponsor Mrs. Lemon.

SADD is an organization for students against driving drunk. It is available for students in grades 9 through 12. This year the sponsor, Mrs. Lemon, decided to raise money for their cause. The students sold bracelets made of string that either go on your wrist or ankle, they were a "hot" item. The theme for the bracelets was "Remember not to tie one on". After purchasing one, the students or adults had to sign a card promising not to drink and drive.

J. Collins has a talk with SADD organizer at the Community Center.

CLUBS THAT CREATE SUCCESS

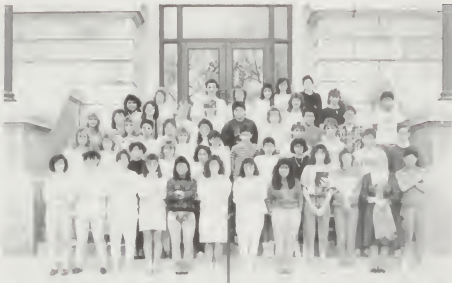

1987-88 Art Club

The 1987-88 Art Club and Industrial Arts Club have done many beneficial projects for the school system and the students. This year, the Art Club tried a new approach to Valentine's Day by selling balloons filled with helium for $2.00. The balloon selling was a huge success. The idea is for students to get a better understanding of Valentine's Day by receiving balloons from friends or from someone who cares.

The Industrial Arts Club has also done its by their contribution to the Homecoming Parade with their float and support throughout the year.

Art Club officers (standing): Activity Chairman, C. Raycroft; Activity Publicist, A. Smith; R. Pietsch, Secretary; S. Madrigal, V-Pres.; (sitting) C. Raycroft, Treasurer; Miss Demkovich; R. Almanza, President.

REAL WHITING MUSIC

The choir is all set to perform the Spring Concert.

The 1987-88 WHS Band

For the second consecutive year tones were taught by yet another new director, Miss Lins. When the Christmas season rolls around, one can count on hearing the choir at WJOB radio station bringing Christmas cheer to all those who are fortunate enough to be listening. Over on the other side of the music department there is Mrs. Russell directing the bands every note. The 1987-88 band took part in the band contests in Portage. Fund raisers were a big part of the band's plans this year. They have high hopes of getting new uniforms. For both the band and choir, many changes have taken place, but one thing will always stay the same — the sweet sound of Whiting music.

These two WHS Band members concentrate on their music.

1987-88 Jr. High Choir.

How about a smile, girls?

The 4th of July parade is always better with the WHS Band performing in it.

Can you tell these "men" are nervous?

Smiles come naturally for these 3.

T. Kellenberger does her part in the parade.

BYE BYE BIRDIE

This year's musical, BYE BYE BIRDIE, was directed by Dorothy Negovetich. The play consisted of a great group of talented actors, actresses, and singers. The run of the play was April 23rd, 24th, 29th, and May 1st. It was another fine play put on by the students.

"The American Boy" (A. Progar) made all the girls faint.

The loyal fans await their idol.

J. Buranosky wonders what's wrong with kids these days.

J. Buckmaster participates in his last high school play.

"Put on a happy face," sings J. Gajewski to the sad little girl.

S. Gravely gets "picked up" at the local bar.

J. Bzibziak enjoys talking on the phone.

Kim (T. Edwards) and Hugo (M. Stoughton) proclaim their love for each other.

C. Hart says, "Never forget your galoshes, Sonny."

A PASSPORT TO SPANISH

1987-88 SPANISH CLUB

Officers: Spon. Miss Schreffler; Sec. S. Gaughan; V-P M. Renda; Pres. J. Toth; Tres. F. Godinez.

This year the Spanish Club is again the largest club at W.H.S. They sold a mixture of items. The Spanish Club earned over $1,000. Instead of holding their annual Christmas party, the club spent their money wisely. They entered a Spanish competition in Indianapolis. In the competition, students were in a "Spanish Scramble" and they performed a skit called "The Little Red Hen". We hope next year, now that they have experience, the students will do much better.

The German Club sold a variety of candy to raise enough money to go on a trip to Wisconsin. During Christmas the club went to the Museum of Science and Industry to admire the German Christmas trees. The students feel it was a great learning experience.

To really unite the two clubs, they scheduled a softball match against each other led by their new sponsors.

FUTURE EDUCATORS HELP COMMUNITY

The F.E.A. at Whiting is always doing good deeds for the community. Once again, around Easter, they took cookies and lots of caring to the Convalescent Center. Also, when the open house took place the school was filled with F.E.A. members helping people find their way around Whiting High.

1987-88 FBLA

The new club is FBLA. The letters stand for Future Business Leaders of America. The club gives students a chance to learn about the business world. Members were inducted at the beginning of the year at a semi-formal ceremony. This year the club set up teams which competed in a stock market project. The students bought and sold stock with pretend accounts. Since it was the club's first year, it started out on shaky ground, but it looks like the club has a bright future for being successful at Whiting High.

D. Greer checks on his stocks.

D. Sandrick shows his form in the egg drop.

This year, there was a new club for students to get involved in. It was the Science Club, and it enabled the students to have learning experiences in a field not given much attention to. With the help of the Sponsor Miss Martin, students who wish to have a future in science would be given a better understanding of the many fields available in that area.

With 9 convincing honor students in Physics and a willing sponsor, Mr. Sorota, the 1987-88 Physics Club came about. Being all seniors, this club got together for fun but yet for scientific adventures. They adventured to Fermi Lab with the Chemistry II class and they attended sessions at Indiana Northwest. There the club was introduced to new and exciting fields in science. This year's officers included Pres. C. Raycroft; V-Pres. T. Maleckar; Treas. N. Jaroszewicz; Sec. J. Collins, and Sergeant-of-Arms, R. Stapleton.

LAYING DOWN THE LAW

The 1987-88 Student Council

The 1987-88 Junior High Student Council.

It was quite a year for the Student Council. This group of school leaders were involved in and sponsored many school activities. Besides their regular duties of planning Homecoming festivities and the annual blood drive, the Student Council sponsored the newly activated Winter Formal, donated fruit to the "Up With People" visitors, and sponsored a school program called "Bridges". All meetings were run by Parliamentary procedure. The new sponsor of the Student Council is Miss Sheldon.

This was also the first year of Junior High Student Council. The sponsors are Miss Sheline and Mr. Angel.

Junior Officers were Pres., J. Hanis; V-Pres., T. Joyce; Sec., T. Strabavy; Treas., S. Strabavy.

Senior Officers were Pres., S. Babair; Treas., J. Toth; Sponsor, Miss Sheldon; Sec., K. Kender; V-Pres., G. Waleczak.

The S.C. sponsored the Homecoming dance and festivities.

T. Maleckar tells T. Progar the benefits of giving blood.

CREATING MEMORIES OF '88

C. Raycroft is always trying to correct T. Lawson's typing errors.

Sorting pictures for her layout is D. Manich.

M. Renda gives B. Adams a helping hand.

Always on top of things is our editor D. Stewart.

Advisor. Mr. Laub, points to a few of S. Rosinski's mistakes.

C. Raycroft wonders if S. Babair remembers all of those memories.

Helping to meet all of our deadlines is typist T. Lawson.

"Am I cropping just right?" D. Gacsko wonders.

The beginning of "Glory Days" have just been started by M. Renda and A. Smith.

Flipping through the pages S. Babair and K. Kender find out what it's all about.

Is J. Toth really finding out what REFLECTOR is all about?

REFLECTOR is just like your own "photo album" for you to remember your friends, teachers, and all the great times you have shared throughout the year. The REFLECTOR staff has to make everything just right for your album. Picking the best pictures and writing good captions to best describe those pictures are just a small part of what staff members do. The big part is working together as a team to make the "photo album" a success for the past year and for memories.

Sophomores, S. Gaughan and J. Bzibziak, admire their articles.

G. Harding masters the headlining machine.

J. Peterson reviews her fellow classmates writing before she types the final copy.

Editor-in-Chief, S. Kleinedler, is almost ready to make the layout for our TATTLER.

M. Zimmerman asked Mrs. Hanis for advice on wording her article.

Sports Editor M. Chilla gives his opinion on the next couple games at Whiting to junior C. Rigg.

THE TATTLER COVERS IT ALL

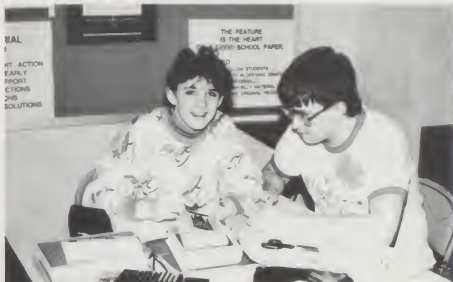

The "Voice of the Oilers" comes every other Friday to bring you up to date on the main events at Whiting. The "Voice of the Oilers" is the TATTLER. The TATTLER staff consist of 12 dedicated staff members and advisor Mrs. Mary Hanis. They focus on bringing us academic news, sports, Personality Profiles, and occasionally a section expressing opinions on occurring events. Every once in a while, there's even a puzzle for students and teachers to do in their spare time.

Before Christmas break, the staff thinks of Christmas stocking stuffers for the Seniors. Valentine's Day gives students the chance to express their secret emotions to friends. Finally at the end of each school year, the last edition of the TATTLER is dedicated to the Seniors.

B. Polak and G. Harding discuss their writing ideas.

D. Smith, while writing her copy, pauses for a quick picture.

TATTLER staff: (l-r) C. Rigg, B. Polak, J. Gajewski, G. Harding, M. Zimmerman, M. Chilla, K. Niemiec, S. Kleinedler, S. Gaughan, D. Smith, J. Bzbiak, J. Peterson and sitting Mrs. Hanis.

NHS officers are: (l-r) Pres., M. Chilla; Sponsor, Mr. Daniels; V-Pres., T. Maleckar; Sec., T. Lawson; Treas., C. Raycroft.

New initiates of NHS include: top (l-r) K. Haney, S. Hill, E. Toth, P. Napier; sitting, C. Hart, M. Zimmerman, K. Niemiec, K. Kompi-er, and D. Manich.

After the ceremony the initiates get together to celebrate.

"The winner of the Easter Raffle is...?"

D. Sandrick, with character, lights the final candle.

AT THE TOP

C. Raycroft and T. Lawson are getting their hands caught in the cookie jar from the Thanksgiving Drive.

Each year outstanding students are chosen from the junior and senior classes for the National Honor Society. They are chosen by the faculty who look for Scholastic achievements, character, leadership, and service to their school.

This year 8 juniors and 1 senior were initiated on April 28. In between classes, they sang and answered questions about world politics, athletics, and Indiana history for the informal initiation. At the end of the day, they were formally initiated by the current members, Mr. Blake, and Mr. Kountoures.

The NHS fundraisers were the Thanksgiving Drive and Easter Raffle. The NHS sponsor is Mr. Daniels.

Senior members of the National Honor Society include: top (l-r) D. Stewart, B. Polak, T. Lawson, C. Raycroft; sitting D. Sandrick, T. Ma-lekar, M. Chilla, S. Kleinedler, and M. Napier.

Mr. Kountoures congratulates senior, S. Hill, for making the NHS.

D. Stewart and T. Malekar think that there's something fishy about E. Toth's answer.

LOST WITHOUT THEM

The administration in our school helps us to keep everything running smoothly.

Our Superintendent Mr. Novak is always making sure education at Whiting is at its best. His administrative secretaries, Mrs. Shaner, Mrs. Dado and Mrs. Kantowski, are important to Mr. Novak and the school, also.

Mr. Kountoures, principal, always will make time for problems the students might have.

Playing a double role is Mr. Blake, our assistant principal and attendan-

MONEY MATTERS

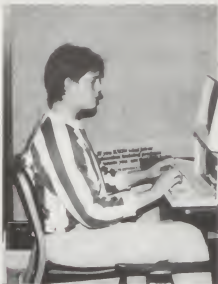

Typing away K. Havily quickly glances for a picture.

Doing a quick review, P. Cummins checks her homework.

Realizing that working with a computer is not an easy task is B. Jennings.

Working together on their assignment are T. Maleckaar, T. Walker, L. Unate, and L. Ortiz.

Working on shorthand, H. Strisko does her best.

Working on her projects, V. Perez puts forth full concentration.

Taking a break, D. Sheffield thinks about his future in business.

Stopping his explanation, M. Chilla asks the class to quiet down.

The Business Department of our school prepares students that are planning on moving right into the business world. have the choice to take typing, shorthand, accounting, and many other courses. These classes help students widen abilities for an easier time in the evergrowing business world.

J. Collins dictates shorthand to J. Bzibziak to see how much she remembers.

D. Coppola is practicing her filing skills in business class.

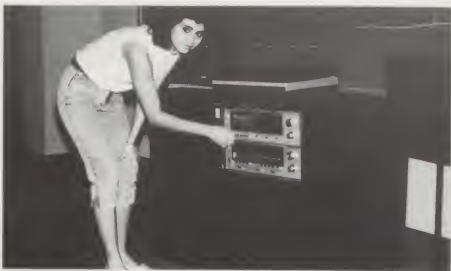

G. Walczak, with the help of M. Castle, makes the books balance correctly.

OUR HIDDEN SECRETS

Making sure the coast is clear, J. Gianotti looks for his test results.

C. Flores and J. Jones work on their latest assignment in art class.

T. Espinosa is going to show the class what kind of music she likes.

D. Aguilera gives an explanation about these well-known composers to the class.

Looking through his drawings, W. Luedtke tries to decide which is the best one.

J. Flores and S. Madrigal use teamwork in finishing a project.

Whiting is fortunate to have two departments that may help up discover hidden talents within us. They are the art and music departments.

Art is not just based around learning about drawings and textures; you'll also gain knowledge of early stages of art and painters. Besides knowledge, it gives a person a chance to express ideas and be able to design by one's taste.

The music department received a new addition, Ms. Lins, our new music teacher. She is going to do her best to develop and broaden horizons on famous composers and music knowledge to all her students.

Lending a helping hand, Mrs. Demkovich helps M. Livingston with his project.

Giving a pointer to a fellow student is R. Taylor.

LEARNING FOR

Mr. Cain shows D. Rooke some new tactics.

Quest students M. Stroughton and A. Sutton ask "What do you see?"

F. Rodriguez shows a man could cook also.

Future architect M. Costica.

THE FUTURE

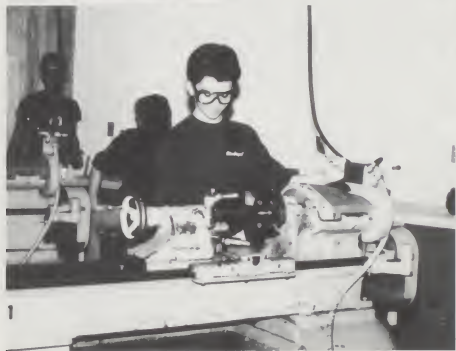

The Scruff.

Pulling out her creation is K. Trgovich.

Clothing, Foods, Industrial Arts, and Quest may not sound hard, but one does learn many new things. Many of these classes teach oneself the fundamentals used in later life. In Clothing, one learns to sew, cut, and follow patterns. In Foods, while not just learning to cook, one learns the measurements. Industrial Arts includes Woodshop, Metals, Drafting, CAD/CAM, and blueprint. Quest is designed to explore your inner feelings, and that's what many students do. So if one really wants to take these courses, one better be prepared to really learn for the future.

R. Roberts displays his expertise in metals.

M. Wright makes her new line of clothes.

Sewing is nothing for P. Napier.

GETTING THE MOST OUT OF P.E. AND HEALTH

Looking for a hit is S. Gravely.

T. Williams and M. Bishop look for what to do next.

S. Roebuck keeps her eye on the ball.

J. Plemich shows perfect form on the return.

K. Trgovich needs good control for double dutch.

Going over the proper steps is S. Guajardo.

Showing us another technique is A. Delmuro.

S. DelReal shows us he's a real "all-star."

Jumping at a blur is M. Gormley.

A. Gonzales wonders if N. Toth should have jumped higher.

P.E. and Health are a very important part of our education. P.E. gives you a chance to try different sports, and it gives you an idea on how you can keep in shape while still having fun. Health class was taught different than in recent years. This year a CPR life saving class was taught for a 6-week period. Following a completion of the period, a test is given. If passed, you become a registered member who can act to save a life.

Eyeing the pitcher is R. Vela.

Jumping for joy.

ENRICHING LANGUAGES

Hola and Guten Tag, both meaning hi!, are just a few of the many phrases one learns in the Spanish and German classes. During the year, the Spanish classes made Pinatas and cloth drawings. The German class decorated our hallway bulletin boards. So if one wants to be enriched by these languages, they should take a step in the right direction and enroll in these classes.

L. Van den Hoek displays her Pinata.

M. Livingston and D. Huntley point at advertisements in Spanish.

R. Artist is in his Spanish attire while T. Gazda looks on.

E. Miller takes a whack at the Pinata.

M. Scholtens and J. Bogs display the German flag.

B. Adams and W. Greer stop and smile by the German bulletin board.

While at the board, D. Smith and J. Collins conjugate verbs.

A. Gonzales adds the finishing touch.

MINDING OUR P'S AND Q'S

Another year has come and gone and much has been gained by both the students and the teachers.

With all the knowledge of the English department and the "ready to learn" students, this will go down as a successful year.

Also, welcome to Mrs. Zaalouk, a new member of the English department.

Diagramming a sentence is S. Corpus.

G. Vasquez and S. Pabey give'em a "taste" of speech class.

Practicing their ballet in speech class are B. Brazinski and W. Greer.

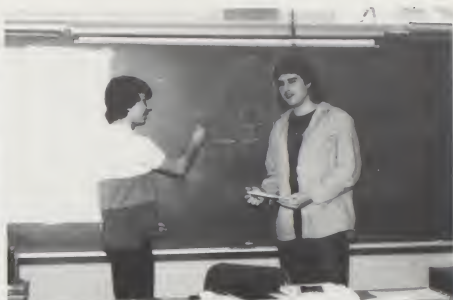

These Freshmen perform Romeo and Juliet.

Ms. Flaris is always ready to lend a hand to R. Flores.

J. Allard picks out a love story.

Pat Sajak and Vanna White? No, it's D. Bayless and R. Baker.

Two Seniors learn proper English from their teacher.

This is the first year W.H.S. has had an academic team. In this year's competition, the English Team took 1st place in both the invitational and the regionals. With the help of Miss Martin, the head coach, and Ms. Flaris, the English coach, the team did a fine job. The English team members were Jennifer Toth, Jennifer Plemich, Margie Zimmerman, and Tammy Maleckar.

The English Department and the entire school give a fond farewell to Mrs. DePeugh, who has worked here from 1960-1988. Mrs. DePeugh teaches Sophomore English and Speech classes, Communications, Drama, and is Sponsor of the FEA.

WHITING MAKES HISTORY

Gathering information is G. Harding.

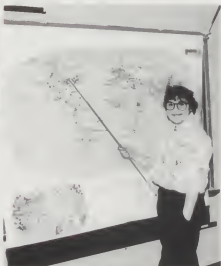

Electoral votes are a mystery to J. Delgado.

These boys get a "lecture" from Mr. Adkins.

Reports are part of everyday life at Whiting.

These WHS students take a break for a smile.

Do you know who the 7th President was? Or where the Malagasy Republic is? Didn't think so! If one wants to expand their horizons, and learn about subjects like these-one could do it right here at Whiting High! Whiting has such a wide variety of classes. From U. History, and World History to Sociology and Civics, you'll be able to answer the questions above and many others you may have.

WHS history at its best?

J. Edwards tells a historical story to M. Castle.

A dictionary is valuable to W. Johnson.

Trying to find a route to good grades is C. Justak.

Libraries are a good place to learn history.

Civics is a class which involves speeches.

A. Cardenas and J. Perry try to find our city.

ENDLESS MATH

Graphing is easy, thinks W. Kellenberger and E. Miller.

Trying to draw a straight line is J. Ferrer.

T. Summey works hard on this problem.

Computers, protractors, pencils, calculators, and rulers are a few bare necessities if one is taking a Math course at Whiting High. For the college life, Algebra, Geometry, and the Advanced Math courses come in handy. Additionally Basic, General, and Business Math are essential for the business person in mind. For the engineer type, Whiting also offers computer courses. Since one needs 5 semesters of math, the varieties seem endless in your course selection. In other words, endless selections for endless learning.

"I know how to use a computer," says B. Cronin.

K. Plesha and D. Reeves cram for a test.

T. Smith takes time off to smile for the camera.

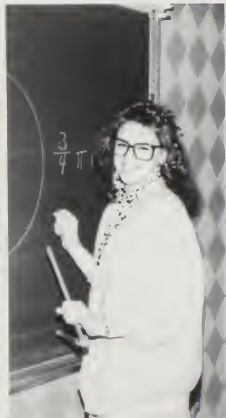

What's that?

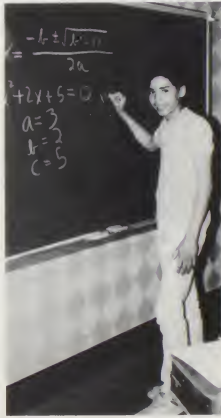

Mr. Sorota to the rescue.

T. Orlando "proves" she really does know how to do a proof.

J. Bzibziak masters the "arc" of the circle.

Quadratic formula comes in handy for R. Downen.

SCIENCE IN ALL FORMS

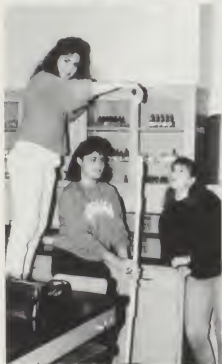

Chem students J. Keithley and D. Sandrick ham it up.

R. Bishop gets buried with chromosomes.

K. Haviley and D. Manich demonstrate proper ways to handle lab equipment.

Practicing on their egg dropping are S. Kleinedler and D. Gajdos.

L. Gonzales asks herself, "Why me?"

"Which way is up?", wonders B. Chicvara.

The results of an experiment are read to the class.

With the addition of 2 new teachers on the Science staff; Miss Douglas taking over the field of Biology and Mr. Angel the field of Physical Science, Whiting added new depth to the word SCIENCE. With Chemistry teacher Miss Martin organizing the new Science Club, more students became interested in the activities and subjects they discussed at their meetings. One of the subjects was the egg-drop which was very successful at I.U. Northwest. Each of these 3 teachers hopes that these activities will attract more students to the Science field.

Concentration is a must for S. Rosinski.

Taking notes on his specimen is J. Gaal.

S. Babair, C. Raycroft, and T. Lawson show the finished product.

Juniors K. Haney and K. Kompier use teamwork in the lab.

OUTSTANDING STUDENTS SHINE

E. Toth is the winner of the Bausch and Lomb Scholarship.

The 1987-88 Academic Team.

The Hugh O'Brien winner is D. Smith.

Girls' and Boys' State Delegates are K. Ku-

UNLIKE ANY OTHER

The 1987 volleyball season was unlike any other season. With 7 returning seniors, the Oilers looked for an outstanding year. In conference, the Oilers were only one game short of earning the title when beaten by Bishop Noll after a close match.

In Sectionals, the Lady Oilers again faced BNI and were downed only after two hours of outstanding play.

All-Conference went to Barb Polak and Suzy Kleinedler. Honorable mention went to Debbie Stewart, Kelly Kender, and Deana Gajdos.

N. Jaroszewicz goes for a kill as K. Haviley is ready for a return.

Junior K. Haney anxiously awaits the serve.

OUR WINNING MOMENT

Robert Stapleton puts on a sweet move to lose the defender.

As the season began, the optimistic Oilers hoped to improve their last year's record. They strived for a winning season after tough August practices. But after losing their first couple of games, the Oilers couldn't pull themselves back together. With the thoughts of Homecoming just around the corner, the Oilers were hungry for a victory. That night the determined Oilers, with a large crowd support, gave the fans something to cheer about with a 7-6 victory. The Homecoming victory turned out to be the only win for the Oilers in 1987.

For the 1987-88 Cross Country team, it was a long season of hard work.

The season started off with grueling runs on the beach in the sand to build up leg muscles. Often one could see the team running down the streets being timed by Mr. Daniels. The first months of practice are vital to the success of the team, because getting back in shape is a tough job after summer.

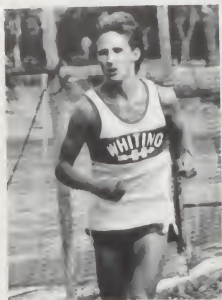

Although the season didn't turn out the way the Oilers had planned, they never faltered. Throughout the whole season, they ran with pride knowing they were Oilers.

"W" winners this year were seniors, Ruben Oliver, Ted Summey, Tammy Maleckar, Lupe Unate; juniors, Mike Bishop, Julio Montero, and Erik Toth (MVP); sophomore, Buffy Adams; Freshmen, Jose Aguilera and Wendy Kellenberger.

Mr. Basketball, M. Keeler, skies over Hanover for two.

With six experienced seniors, the Oilers expected to give the competition a good fight. Starting the season with three losses against Gary Wirt, Wheeler, and Hanover Central, the Oilers kept their spirits high. Taking on some tough teams such as, Clark, Culver Military and Morton, the Oilers brought home three victories.

Towards the end of the season the Oilers sadly let their momentum fade to give them an overall 7-14 season. In the Conference, the Oilers ended up 1-4 with an exciting victory over Morton. One of their tough defeats was against Bishop Noll. It was a very close game and the fans knew the team tried their hardest.

Ah, what's this, the Lady Varsity Oilers are smiling at the J.V.'s score.

Reflecting back to the 1986-87 girls' basketball season, the Oilers anticipated an excellent overall record and maybe even the title of Conference Champs 1987-88. But beginning the season, the Lady Oilers ran into a big set back with injuries. Suffering from sprained ankles during the first week of practice and illnesses for the big Munster game didn't help matters for Coach Laub. With everyone's effort, the Lady Oilers ended with an overall record of 11-9. Suffering a heart breaking loss in the BNI game, the Oilers received 2nd in Conference.

Picking Lake Central for their Sectionals offered very little hope of having any chance for the final game. With 5 starting seniors anxious to make a name for themselves, they brought home a victory for their school. Coach Laub states "Beating Lake Central in the Sectionals will always hold a special place in my coaching memories".

All-Conference honors went to Barbie Polak, Debbie Stewart, and Tammy Progar.

J. Radford is always ready to take on any number of Warriors for a rebound.

This softball season there was no stopping the Lady Oilers. With determination in their blood, the team, going 20-3, managed to take the Conference title. The Oilers did not stop here however. Despite hot and humid days, technical difficulties, and a bad case of the nerves, the members of this squad played like never before. On May 30th this outstanding group and their proud coaches walked off the field carrying the first Sectional title won in a girl's sport. The girls then aimed for Regionals, played June 4th against Chesterton. Due to Reflector deadline, we are unable to recount the entire season.

Erik Toth strikes out the last batter.

R. Rodriguez gets set in the batters box.

The 1988 baseball season for Whiting went unfortunately unsuccessful. First, their head coach, Coach Fritz, had health problems and couldn't finish out the season. That left Coach Laurincik to work on wins for Whiting with the boys. It was Coach Laurincik's second year, and he tried his hardest to bring home victories for Whiting. But with mostly all underclassmen and only one Senior to finish the season, the Oilers struggled.

Out of all their victories though, the one that picked up their spirits was the victory against Bishop Noll (Noll was ranked in the top 5).

Goalie J. Oliver is always ready.

This year the lack of experience was the main problem for the Oilers. With only a couple of Seniors on the team, the Juniors and the Sophomores carried much of the burden throughout the year. Another factor that was a problem were injuries. Losing several key players for a couple of weeks is hard to handle, but the time received by the others gave us a look at the future team and a glimmer of hope for the up and coming Oiler squad.

WINNING WAYS

From the early morning practices in August to the late afterschool ones in October, these high spirited girls showed their stuff on the court. With a thrilling victory at home over Bishop Noll, this winning team proceeded to tie with BNI for the conference title.

The sophomores proved they really do know the heart of the game by teaching the freshmen leadership and confidence for the upcoming year. Hard work and much determination enabled these girls to have a winning season at 16-8.

With hands of steel, T. Filipek goes for the block.

Ready to move, J. Bzibziak awaits the serve.

When ten basketball hungry freshmen get together for a season, you can bet sparks are going to fly. It was a giant accomplishment for several freshmen Oilers to dress and play J.V. This builds experience for future years. From early in the season to the last game, the chemistry of the team was successful with a finishing record of 8-7.

Coach gives quick instructions to the team.

ATTITUDE MAKES THE DIFFERENCE

The 1987-88 season for the Oilers was a very successful one. The team had accomplished a record of 11-9. Though the record was above .500, the team lost several games within 6 points or less. During the year, the team lost two members of the squad who eventually became starters for the Varsity. Then midway through the season there was an addition of 4 freshmen. Though they lacked experience, each contributed the best of their ability. The rest of the team, was composed of Sophomores and Juniors.

LET THE FESTIVITIES BEGIN

If one would come to the games and practices of the J.V. Girls' Basketball team, they would witness the team spirit and unity of these "talented girls". Coach Stew stressed the importance of free throws, and it surely paid off in many close games.

This conference winning team had many pressures. So coach would break down and give an occasional fun practice. Fun? Early morning Indian Runs on Saturdays? Shuffles until they drop? Cries of "cut the buffoonery" from Coach?

To some people this wouldn't sound like fun, but to these dedicated girls, it was worth a season of triumph, with a record of 15 wins and 2 losses.

OILERS ON THE GREEN

This year the Oiler team struggled, unlike last year by achieving the second best record in the conference. The Oilers started out well, but started to lose their concentration for the game of golf. The big problem for the team was the fifth man. By using a less experienced J.V. member, the team depended highly on his score, because the varsity was not very consistent through the year. Next year's team looks promising with 3 returning lettermen and more experienced players.

1988 OILERS GO FOR THE GOLD

CARPENTERS ON THE FIELD

A cheerleader's job is to build up the excitement of the crowd. Not all people realize the job of a cheerleader. One job in the summer is to go to practice every day in order to prepare for camp. This year the cheerleaders attended ICC at DePauw University in Greencastle, Indiana. The Oilers won the spirit megaphone (given to the schools with the most spirit) and many red and blue ribbons.

During the season, the cheerleaders chose Freshman and Jr. High cheerleaders, had a car in the Homecoming Parade, and performed a dance at a basketball game halftime.

The end of the season has arrived and the cheerleaders have many memories: participating in the 4th of July Parade, performing at the Holiday Star Theater, and remembering the whole year as a cheerleader. Cheerleading not only teaches you about spirit, pride, and responsibility, but it also teaches you about a special friendship that can develop during the season.

J.V. /Varsity Cheerleaders: 1st row: S. Cabrera, D. Reeves, S. Gravelly, K. Haviley, and K. Plesha. 2nd row: K. Babair and D. Manich. 3rd row: S. Guajardo.

Behind the scenes of our sports, there are people who keep accurate statistics. Although keeping stats might seem to be a lot of hard work, they also find time for the coaches if something needs to be done. Nothing stops these people from missing a game! The stat people play an important part in the athletic activities of our school.

MVP for wrestling went to J. Flores.

E. Toth and B. Adams took home MVP trophies for Cross Country.

Most Valuable Player trophies are earned by, not given to, the athletes. MVP's are elected by the coaches of each particular sport. During a high school career, it is the goal that is commonly set by the sports oriented student.

Kat Haney was co-MVP for the '87 softball season along with B. Polak.

THE CREAM OF THE CROP

The all-conference athletes are the cream of the crop. They are only a few of the BEST athletes at Whiting. Striving for excellence throughout the season, the conference coaches chose these athletes.

Conference honors for Wrestling went to J. Flores.

The All-Conference selection for Boys' Basketball is Senior, Mike Keeler.

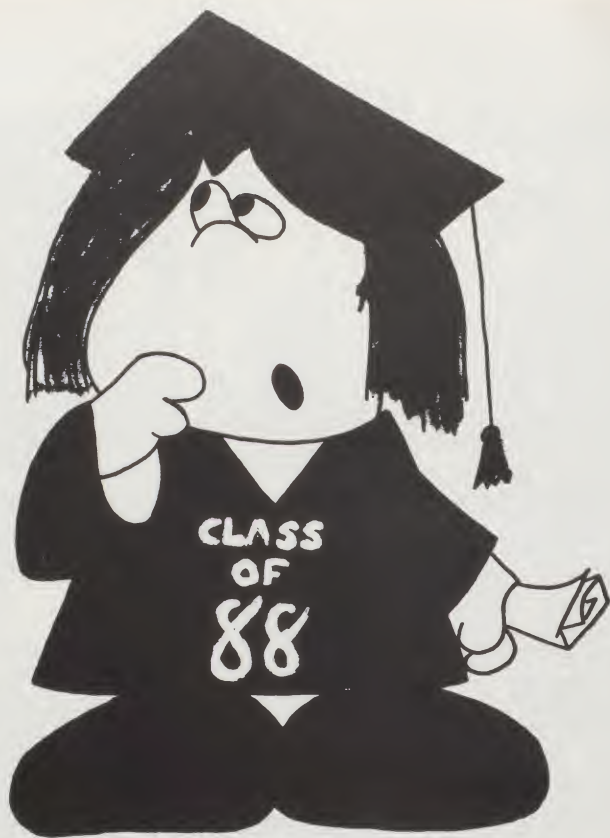

All-Conference achievers for Volleyball were D. Gajdos, D. Stewart, K. Kender, B. Polak, and S. Kleinedler.

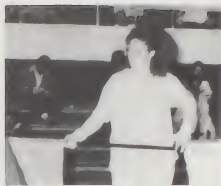

Seniors, T. Progar, B. Polak, and D. Stewart, made the All-Conference team for Girls' Basketball.

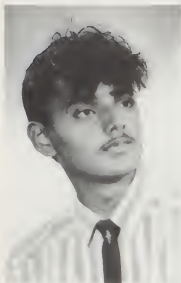

Academic All-State honors went to R. Stapleton, D. Sandrick, and D. Stewart.

STUDENTS REACH MILESTONES

Class of 1988

On June 2, 1988, a goal set by sixty-eight teenagers was achieved. A night long awaited, finally arrived. Graduation proved to be a milestone in each and every student's life. Tears flowed from all eyes, ones of sadness from those who were leaving lifetime friends, and those of happiness from the proud parents of these outstanding people.

Anna Marie Smith gave the religious reading, while Valedictorian David Sandrick, Salutatorian Tammy Maleckar, and Class President James Collins gave speeches about the class of '88 and the road to the future. Sponsor Gail Lemon then announced the purchase of a computerized message board by the class.

Deep in their own thoughts, J. Flores and M. Crowley each reflect upon the past.

G. Harding gives a final hug to his friend, T. Lawson.

Mr. Buckley gives a hearty handshake to M. Villalon.

Ready to start the processional is R. Almanza.

Watching her partner, D. Soto takes her first step towards graduating.

Unable to hide her tears, is D. Kellenberger.

For his grand finale, D. Wenglarz plays his best.

D. Hayes waltzes in to the sounds of "Pomp and Circumstance."

S. Pabey and K. Owens pause for a picture before graduation.

Congratulations were received by D. Stewart and R. Stapleton from the School Board Members.

We, the Class of 1988, being of sound minds and bodies bequeath the following to the underclassmen:

Raphael Almanza: my memories to Tanya and Debbie.
Shelley Babair: a boyfriend that's not a hillbilly to Windeth.
Ron Baker: Joe Reeves the "square deals."
Joe Bizik: my car to Wally, and Kelly my truck.

MOVING ON

Two of the profound teaching and administrative positions are being vacated. The teaching spot by Mrs. Jane DePeugh and the administrative place by Principal John Kountoures.

Mrs. Jane DePeugh has been teaching for twenty-nine years. Not only at WHS but also at Zionsville and French Lick. Mrs. DePeugh has taught a variety of English related subjects including Drama, Speech, Communication, Grammar, Literature, Art, and has been an art supervisor. She says that she is elated about retiring. She plans on doing extensive traveling, golfing, and swimming at her home in California.

After nineteen years as principal of Whiting, Mr. John Kountoures is moving up to assist Mr. Novak. Mr. Kountoures says that he's "enjoyed each and every year serving as the Principal of a good school with fine students and an excellent faculty."

Everyone at Whiting wishes these two outstanding individuals the best of luck in the future.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

J. Toth and B. Adams look back over the past year.

As the school year goes by the job of the REFLECTOR staff is to keep track of all the memories that are created. Along with the pressure of deadlines, this group of hardworking and dedicated people had to deal with my "claws popping out," my temper, and picture requests planned around my busy schedule. Tension in the air was normal when it was close to deadline time. Arguments and bickering were very common, but once the layouts were turned in friendships were patched up. Our memories of the 1988 yearbook planning will always bring smiles to our faces.

I would like to thank the members of the REFLECTOR staff, all the teachers whose classes I got out of, and who never complained when I needed to take someone out of their class for pictures, our professional photographer, Mr. Lovasko, our Herff Jones representative, Mr. George Kingsley, and especially our yearbook advisor, Mr. Paul Laub. Without him the yearbook would not be as you see it now...FINISHED.

Ads Editor, Anne Smith, and Editor-in-chief, Debbie Stewart, can feel confident about leaving the REFLECTOR in the hands of the new editors.

the 1990s, the number of people with a diagnosis of schizophrenia has increased in the United Kingdom (Meltzer 1996). This has led to a growing reliance on the use of drugs to manage the condition.

There is a growing awareness of the need to develop a more holistic approach to the management of people with a diagnosis of schizophrenia. This approach should take account of the individual's social and cultural context, as well as their physical and mental health. The aim is to develop a more integrated approach to the management of the condition, one that takes account of the individual's needs and preferences. This approach should be based on a partnership between the individual and the health care system, one that recognizes the individual's role in their own care and the role of the health care system in supporting the individual.

The aim of this paper is to explore the role of the health care system in the management of people with a diagnosis of schizophrenia. The paper will first explore the current approach to the management of the condition, and then discuss the need for a more holistic approach. The paper will then discuss the role of the health care system in the development of a more integrated approach to the management of the condition.

The paper is organized as follows. The first section discusses the current approach to the management of the condition. The second section discusses the need for a more holistic approach. The third section discusses the role of the health care system in the development of a more integrated approach to the management of the condition.

The first section discusses the current approach to the management of the condition. The current approach is based on the use of drugs to manage the condition. The aim is to reduce the symptoms of the condition and to prevent relapse.

The second section discusses the need for a more holistic approach. The current approach is based on the use of drugs to manage the condition. The aim is to reduce the symptoms of the condition and to prevent relapse. However, this approach does not take account of the individual's social and cultural context, as well as their physical and mental health.

The third section discusses the role of the health care system in the development of a more integrated approach to the management of the condition. The health care system has a role to play in the development of a more integrated approach to the management of the condition. The health care system should be based on a partnership between the individual and the health care system, one that recognizes the individual's role in their own care and the role of the health care system in supporting the individual.
